

Problems	Objective Resolution	Bogra Formula	1956 Constitution	1962 Constitution	1973 Constitution
Character of Constitution (Western or Islamic)	1. Sovereignty to the entire universe belongs to Allah 2. There will be an Islamic Democracy 3. The rights of the minorities will be protected.	All points are same as objective resolution	All points are same as objective resolution	All points are same as objective resolution	All points are same as objective resolution
Distribution (Geographic & Representation)	1. Through instrument of accession states could join Pakistan 2. Bahawalpur, & Khairpur States joined Pakistan after independence	1. One unit was proposed the Bogra & adopted by the Chaudri Mohammad Ali 2. He gave parity formula for equality between the two wings of Pakistan	1. West Pakistan Act was introduced which divided Pakistan into two provinces	1. West Pakistan Act was introduced which divided Pakistan into two provinces 2. It was continue till separation of East Pakistan	1. West Pakistan Act was excluded 2. East Pakistan Separated 3. Pakistan became bicameral
Language Controversy (Urdu or Bengali)	1. Basic Principles committee in its first report declared Urdu as the national language of Pakistan	1. Bogra formula proposed two national languages 2. Urdu & Bengali were national language its separation from Pakistan	1. Urdu & Bengali were national language its separation from Pakistan	1. Urdu & Bengali were national language its separation from Pakistan	1. Urdu was national language separation of Bangladesh from Pakistan
Form of Govt. (Presidential or Parliamentary)	1. Objective resolution proposed parliamentary form of democracy for the Pakistan	1. Bogra formula proposed parliamentary form of democracy for the Pakistan	1. This constitution proposed parliamentary form of democracy for the Pakistan	1. This constitution proposed Presidentail form of democracy for the Pakistan	2. This constitution proposed parliamentary form of democracy for the Pakistan