INTRODUCTION

- Faith (Iman) is the core belief system of Islam
- It acts as the engine that drives all actions
- Without faith, actions lose their true value

WHAT IS IMAN?

- Iman means belief in the unseen realities
- It is a combination of:
 - Heart (belief)
 - Tongue (declaration)
 - Actions (practice)

COMPONENTS OF FAITH

- There are 6 basic beliefs:
 - Belief in Allah (Tawheed)
 - Belief in Angels
 - Belief in Divine Books
 - Belief in Prophets
 - Belief in Day of Judgment (Akhirat)
 - Belief in Divine Decree (Taqdeer)

TAWHEED (ONENESS OF GOD)

- Allah is one and unique
- No partners, no equal
- Foundation of all beliefs

BELIEF IN ANGLES

- Created from light
- Always obey Allah
- Perform specific duties

BELIEF IN DIVINE BOOKS

- Revealed for guidance
- Major books include:
 - Torah
 - Zabur
 - Injeel
 - Quran (final book)

BELIEF IN PROPHETS

- Chosen by Allah to guide humanity
- Examples
 - Adam AS
 - Ibrahim
 - MUSA
 - Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH) (Final prophet)

BELIEF IN THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

- Life after death is real
- Everyone is accountable
- Rewards and punishments based on deeds

BELIEF IN TAQDEER

- Everything happens by Allah's knowledge and will
- Humans still have free will and responsibility

IMPORTANCE OF FAITH ENGINE LAYER

- Shape a person's thinking and behavior
- Provides purpose and direction in life
- Builds strong moral and spiritual foundation

CONNECTION WITH OTHER LAYERS

- Faith → Strengthen Ibadat
- Faith → improves Akhlaq (character)
- Faith → influences social and economic life

CONCLUSION

- Faith is the base of the entire Islamic system
- A strong Iman leads to:
 - Good Actions
 - Strong character
 - Balanced life
