Lahore Resolution-1940

- Jinnah's Presidential Address:

1. Clearly explained the basic concept of the resolution
2. The Muslims of India stood for the freedom of India-but freedom should be for all not only a section of people
3. The Muslims are taken for granted mistakenly as a minority-they are not, they are a nation by any definition
4. The problem of India is not of inter-communal character but of inter-national nature-it must be traced
5. Hindus and Muslims are two different civilizations, mainly based on conflicting concepts, ideas and value system. To yoke them together under a single state must lead to a growing discontent and final destruction.
