

Ideology and Aims of the Establishment of Pakistan

□ What is Ideology?

Meaning:

“Ideology” means a set of beliefs, ideas, and principles that guide people about how they should live and what kind of society they should build.

It gives a nation a clear direction and purpose — a way of thinking that shapes its political, social, and moral system.

In simple words:

Ideology is a belief system that gives meaning to life and provides a plan for how people should organize their state and society.

Examples:

- The ideology of Democracy is based on people’s freedom and equality.
- The ideology of Communism is based on equality and common ownership.
- The ideology of Pakistan is based on Islam.

PK Ideology of Pakistan

Definition:

The ideology of Pakistan is based on the teachings of Islam. It means that Muslims should live their lives according to the Holy Qur’an and Sunnah, and that the political, social, and economic system of the state should reflect Islamic values and principles like justice, equality, and brotherhood.

In simple explanation:

Pakistan’s ideology was rooted in the idea that Muslims of the subcontinent were a separate nation, having their own religion, culture, values, and traditions, which could not survive freely in a Hindu-majority India. Therefore, a separate homeland was necessary where they could live and progress according to Islam.

Pakistan was created in the name of Islam — not just as a piece of land, but as a state where Muslims could live with freedom, dignity, and faith.

★ The Two-Nation Theory (TNT)

The Two-Nation Theory was the foundation of the ideology of Pakistan. It explained that Hindus and Muslims were two different nations, not only by religion but also by culture, traditions, language, history, and values.

◆ Main Points of the Two-Nation Theory:

1 ☐ Different Religions:

Hindus follow Hinduism, while Muslims follow Islam — both have entirely different beliefs about life and God.

2 ☐ Different Cultures:

Muslims believe in simplicity and equality; Hindus follow caste systems and idol worship.

3 ☐ Different Social Systems:

Muslims follow the Shariah (Islamic Law), while Hindus follow their own laws based on Vedas.

4 ☐ Different Aims and Ideals:

Muslims wanted an Islamic system, whereas Hindus wanted a secular India dominated by their majority.

Because of these deep differences, living together peacefully under one government was not possible.

Hence, the Two-Nation Theory became the ideological base for the creation of Pakistan.

The Two-Nation Theory gave birth to the demand for a separate homeland — Pakistan.

☐ Role of Great Leaders in the Formation of Pakistan's Ideology

☞ ☐ 1. Sir Syed Ahmed Khan (1817–1898)

- He was the first Muslim leader who realized that Hindus and Muslims were two separate nations.
- After the War of 1857, he advised Muslims to focus on education and unity instead of violence.
- Founded Aligarh Movement and Aligarh College, which became the foundation for Muslim political awakening.
- He clearly said:

“Hindus and Muslims are two nations, who can never become one.”

- His thoughts laid the intellectual base for the ideology of Pakistan.

🌙 2. Allama Iqbal (1877–1938)

- Known as the Spiritual Father of Pakistan.
- In his famous Allahabad Address (1930), he proposed the idea of a separate homeland for Muslims in the northwest of India.
- He wanted a state where Muslims could develop their culture and religion freely.
- He said:

“I would like to see the Punjab, North-West Frontier Province, Sindh, and Balochistan amalgamated into a single state.”

- His dream later became the foundation of Pakistan’s ideology.

☐ 3. Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah (1876–1948)

- The Political Leader who turned Iqbal’s dream into reality.
- At first, he believed in Hindu-Muslim unity, but after seeing Congress’s bias, he realized unity was impossible.
- He said:

“Hindus and Muslims belong to two different religious philosophies, social customs, and literatures.”

- Under his leadership, the All India Muslim League became strong and finally achieved the creation of Pakistan in 1947.
 - Quaid-e-Azam gave Muslims a clear goal — Unity, Faith, and Discipline.

🏠 4. Chaudhry Rehmat Ali (1897–1951)

- He was the first person to coin the word “PAKISTAN” in his 1933 pamphlet “Now or Never”.
- According to him:

“Pakistan means the land of the pure.”

- He described the regions — Punjab, Afghanistan (NWFP), Kashmir, Sindh, and Baluchistan — as parts of the future Muslim homeland.
 - His idea gave the name and vision to the movement for a separate Muslim state.

🏠 Aims and Objectives of the Establishment of Pakistan

After the ideology was clear, the main aims behind creating Pakistan were to make a state based on Islamic principles and Muslim identity.

1 🏠 To Establish an Islamic Society

- Pakistan was made to build an Islamic system where Qur’an and Sunnah would guide all laws.
- The society should reflect justice, equality, tolerance, and honesty.

Pakistan was to be a laboratory where the Islamic way of life could be practiced freely.

2 🏠 To Protect Muslim Identity and Culture

- Muslims wanted to preserve their religious and cultural values.
- Urdu language, Islamic traditions, and festivals needed a safe environment.

Pakistan became a symbol of Muslim unity and pride.

3 ☐ To Achieve Political Freedom

- In united India, Muslims were politically dominated by Hindus.
 - Pakistan aimed to give Muslims their own independent government to make decisions according to Islam.

4 ☐ To Ensure Social and Economic Justice

- Muslims suffered poverty and injustice under British and Hindu control.
 - Pakistan's goal was to create a fair economic system based on Islamic values — Zakat, equality, and welfare.

No class system, no exploitation, equal rights for all citizens.

5 ☐ To Implement Islamic Teachings in Every Field

- Education, law, economy, and administration were to be based on Islamic values.
 - The Holy Qur'an and Sunnah were to be the guiding sources for policy and governance.

6 ☐ To Promote Peace and Tolerance

- Pakistan aimed to be a peaceful country where people of all religions could live freely.
- Quaid-e-Azam said:

“You are free to go to your temples, you are free to go to your mosques...”

- This showed Pakistan’s vision of religious freedom and mutual respect.

🌙 Conclusion

The ideology of Pakistan is the heart of its creation — it gave Muslims a reason to demand a separate homeland.

Guided by Islam, and inspired by the vision of great leaders like Sir Syed Ahmed Khan, Allama Iqbal, Quaid-e-Azam, and Chaudhry Rehmat Ali, Pakistan was established to provide Muslims with a place where they could live freely, practice their religion, and build a just Islamic society.

In short, Pakistan is not just a geographical territory — it is an ideological state created to implement the teachings of Islam and protect the Muslim identity in South Asia.

✦ Exam Tip (Last Line to Write):

The ideology of Pakistan is based on Islam, and the main objective of its creation was to provide Muslims with a homeland where they could lead their lives according to the teachings of the Holy Qur’an and Sunnah, and live with freedom, dignity, and unity.
